

{loadposition partner}

The National Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Uganda (UNCCI) - is a non-profit private sector, whose membership is voluntary. This is a limited company without share capital. The Chamber, however, maintains strong links with the government. Established in 1933 as an organ of the private sector, has grown to become an association of companies owned bustling and credible members of the Ugandan business community.

The Chamber has four main business units:

- Sponsorship

- formulation of proposals for national budget
- to build an effective consultative mechanism
- to support or active participation in the district, national policy-making regional and global

- Membership

- supply services for Kampala Members
- Coordination of rooms or neighborhood
- Supervisory Service Executives members

- Image and PR & IT

- the organization of all events
- March of Members "Business Center"
- supervision of the ICT infrastructure
- Dissemination of information to members

- Finance and Administration
- Human Resource Management
- Financial Management
- Office Administration
- Front Office
- Transportation.

Among the objectives, to increase business opportunities for the private sector in Uganda through:

- the political dialogue with the Government of Uganda;
- government advice on the business environment and necessary actions to improve the business environment;
- to increase active involvement in the quarter, domestic, regional and global policy making;
- free training for our members;
- monthly workshops for networking and dissemination of information;
- provision of information relating to business partners;
- to promote participation in fairs, exhibitions and trade missions to identify new markets and expand existing ones.