

{loadposition partner}

Rwanda Investment and Export Promotion Agency (RIEPA) - the government agency to promote investment and exports, originally RIPA (Investment Promotion Agency) established in 1998 with a mission to increase investments in Rwanda, has acquired the new name in 2004 expanded its role in the promotion and facilitation of investment and exports.

Services:

- Promotion of investment opportunities with local and foreign investors:
- answer calls from investors;
- supply information;
- Management of visits investors in Rwanda.

- Facilitation of investments:
- supply of application forms and processing of investment certificates;
- the access to land;
- environmental impact assessment procedures;

- to facilitate investors to acquire utilities including water, electricity and telephone;
 - Criteria or awareness;
 - Policy or advocacy;
 - Aftercare Services;
 - Register or value added tax (VAT);
 - Clearance or tax;
 - Tax Identification Number (TIN);
 - Customs tax exemption or approval;
 - Business License, registration of companies;
 - notary services;
 - immigration services;
 - authorization to proceed - work permits;
 - renewal of a work permit.
-
- Facilitation of business development and production for export:
 - market surveys;
 - Information on the requirements or export;
 - to identify potential export markets.